

ALEXANDRIA, VA.

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1870.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

Gen. Meade arrived at Ogdensburg, New York, yesterday, accompanied by Generals McDowell and Van Vleet, and will leave for New York to day. He reports the Penian war is ended. The leaders are in the hands of the civil authorities, and all is quiet along the lines. The Government will not provide transportation for the 1,000 to 1,500 Penians remaining in Malone and vicinity. The General reports they are behaving very well, are not disposed to be violent, and only desire to return home. He is confident there will be no further trouble. There is great rejoicing along the Canadian frontier at the termination of the movement.

It is said that Gen. Meade is disposed to blame the people at and about St. Albans for quietly permitting preparations for the Penian invasion to be made, while it is alleged in reply that the Government was fully informed as to what might be expected by its officers there in ample time, and that not a word was received in answer to their communications. However, as the affairs are now ended, there is very little use in "fencing and proving."

A house at Dayton, Ohio, was burned down, through carelessness, on the 29th inst., and Mrs. Frederick Moeller, a German woman, and five children from eleven to two years of age, were suffocated, and an infant four weeks old badly burned. Mrs. Moeller was alive when rescued, but soon died. The baby will recover.

A number of members of the House of Representatives say that with close attention to business, Congress may adjourn on the 11th of July, four days earlier than the date already fixed for that purpose. But from present indications there is more probability of a slight extension than of a curtailment of the time.

We see it stated that the West Point cadets, at large, are heretofore to be exclusively selected from the sons of army officers, "without regard to race or color." One of the recently nominated colored cadets has arrived at West Point for examination. His arrival created quite a "sensation."

All the Executive Departments of the Government will be closed to-day, to allow the employees to participate in the decoration of the soldiers' graves at Arlington. Both Houses of Congress have adjourned till Tuesday, and business is suspended, with the almost wholly suspended.

Gen. R. E. Lee has returned to his home at Lexington, Va., from a visit South, improved in health. But many of his friends wish very much that he may take a trip to Europe this summer.

In the House of Representatives on Saturday a bill to grant pensions to soldiers of 1812 was passed, with a proviso that no pension shall be paid to aiders or sympathizers in the late "rebellion."

A party of drunken Canadians on Saturday tore down the United States flag from the American Consul's office at St. John's. The outrage is deeply regretted by the citizens.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has made several decisions recently affirming the right of the State to tax railroad corporations within its limits.

The "colonizing" of colored men, in Washington, to be used at the approaching municipal election in that city, is said to be going on actively.

Leonard Scott & Co., New York, have republished the April number of the North British Review. Contents:—The Church policy of Constantine; Earl Godwin and Earl Harold; the early authorship of Shakespeare; the Will and Free Will; Jane Austen; Parties and politics of Modern Russia; the Home policy of the Session; Contemporary Literature. All the subjects are interesting, and the articles ably written. Scott & Co's. reprints of the British periodicals are worthy of general patronage.

We have received the Literary Bulletin for June; the Little Corporal for June; the Catalogue of the Medical Department of Washington University of Baltimore, of which Dr. C. W. Chancellor is Dean of the Faculty, Speeches in Congress, &c.

THE LATE ELECTIONS IN VA.—The elections are over now and the passions that may have been excited while the struggle was pending, have toned down, if they have not been entirely extinguished. This is as it should be. There is no sense, less philosophy, and still less of religion, in keeping up a perpetual war about differences of opinion. If we are not all of "the same household of faith" in religion or politics, we are yet fellow-citizens and must live together. Is it not better then for us to live in peace and quiet than to be forever embroiled in angry controversies? The arts only flourish in times of peace, and the greatest art ever yet discovered is that of self-government.

"Greater is he that ruleth his own spirit, than he that taketh a city," says the wisest man that ever lived. We are therefore admonished to rule our spirits, to keep our passions within due bounds, and to refrain from all bitter and needless controversy. Every man is entitled to his opinions, and has the right to express them on all proper occasions. This was done to be sure, in the open and manly way that we prefer—by word of mouth, instead of secret ballot;—and, our duty discharged we leave results with the future. It was, to us, a cause of unspeakable gratification that the election here passed off without violence of any kind; nor, so far as we know, the exchange of angry words between citizens. And now that it is over, the Conservatives, at least, can well afford to set a good example of moderation.—Lynchburg, Virginia.

The Charleston (S. C.) News reports that there was in that city a few days ago a colored man who, during the closing days of the war, was tried by a drum head court-martial, found guilty, sentenced to death, duly hanged and pronounced dead by two surgeons in attendance, one of whom secured the body and then restored him to life. The News adds that the man hid himself until the war was over, and then settled on a farm within thirteen miles of that city, where he is now at work.

Not only are the people to choose a new House of Representatives next November, but the Legislatures of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Delaware, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky, Arkansas, Michigan, Minnesota and Nebraska are each to choose a United States Senator.

A half demented colored boy was found dead at Salisbury, Md., a few days since. Among other eccentricities, he possessed an insatiable appetite, and would swallow almost anything given him, and the day previous to his death some of the fast youths of Salisbury amused themselves by stuffing him with pills, by poison and other noxious compounds, from which it is supposed death resulted.

At the boat race between the crews of the Quaker City Club of Philadelphia and the Naval Academy, which took place on the Severn on Saturday, the victory was won by the Midshipmen's crew, who pulled the three miles in 20 minutes, 25 seconds, the Quaker City making it in 20.58.

The authorities of Salt Lake City on Saturday refused to allow the United States Marshal the privilege of putting United States prisoners in the city prison, as had heretofore been the custom. The prisoners were taken to camp Douglas.

The difficulties at Dickinson College have been satisfactorily settled. The rebellious classes have resumed their college duties, and the absentees will return to examination on June 6th with their classes.

Mr. Biering, an ex Professor in the Roman Catholic Seminary in Baltimore, has recently joined the Greek Church, at St. Petersburg, and is coming to America to preach the doctrines of that Church.

Secretary Boutwell has directed the Sub-Treasurer at New York to sell five millions of gold and purchase eight millions of bonds during the month of June.

Mrs. Harriet M. Wilson, wife of Senator Wilson, died at her residence in Massachusetts, yesterday, of cancer of the stomach, aged forty-eight years.

Bishop Simpson will leave America on June 5th, to preside over the German and Swiss Conference, which meets on June 16th.

Foreign News.

Communication by the French cable suddenly closed on the evening of Thursday, the 26th instant, between Daxbury and St. Pierre. A vessel will leave England immediately to repair the same. In the meantime all messages will be transmitted via the Newfoundland line.

Queen Victoria's birthday was celebrated in the usual manner. Flags and lessons were displayed and salutes fired during the day, and there were reviews of troops. In the evening there was a display of fireworks and several grand dinners were given in honor of the event.

A census was held to decide what action it was desirable to take relative to the selection of a future ruler for Spain. After a long debate a proposition to invest Marshal Serrano with a royal authority was lost by a vote of 22 to 12, and the census adjourned without taking further action. It is said that Gen. Prim has announced his intention to resign from the Cabinet if Marshal Serrano refuses the royal rank.

The Spanish officials have ordered the closest search to be made for the English prisoners lately captured by brigands near Gibraltar. The Government has promised the English Ambassador that Spain will refund any ransom that may have to be paid. Orders have been despatched to the Governor of Cadiz requiring him to accompany any one of the searching parties.

The Minister for the Colonies has made for the gradual extinction of slavery in all the Spanish possessions. The bill provides that children born of slaves since 1868 shall be free, the Government paying an indemnity of $50 for each, and all born after the promulgation of this law shall be unconditionally free. Slaves who have fought in the Spanish service, and all over sixty-five years of age, are to be immediately set free. The proposed law was received with much favor by the Cortes.

It is rumored that there will be a change in the Directorship of the French Postoffice Department. Should this rumor prove true, the French Minister for the Colonies is said to be a candidate for the post. A treaty between France and the United States for the extradition of fugitives in the French possessions, which would be more likely to succeed under any new administration of the French Postoffice Department.

It is now certain that the small pox prevails in the St. Pelagie prison, in Paris, where Henri Rochefort and other journalists are detained. The Chamber of Accusation of the High Court of Justice in Paris commences its session tomorrow for the examination of those implicated in the conspiracy plot. The number of accused is seventy-three, of whom nearly half have been provisionally set free.

Advices from Rome represent that the advocates of infallibility, both in and out of the Council, are extremely active during the debate which is going on. They have called in all abettors of their party to meet the vote, which will soon be taken.

Venitot, editor of L'Univers, the Ultramontane organ of Paris, has presented to the Pope 100,000 francs, most of which was raised by subscription among the clergy of France. The Pope in accepting the gift warmly thanked Venitot. A strict censorship over telegraphic dispatches has been established in Rome. The agent of the Ottoman Government demands of the Papal Court the restoration of their church property to the Oriental monks now at difference with Rome. Cardinal Antonelli has replied to the Bavarian note on the proposed proclamation of infallibility, in the same terms in which he answered France and Austria.

POTOMAC RAILROAD COMPANY.—This is a company organized under a charter from the State of Virginia to build a railroad from Alexandria to Frederickburg, connecting there with the lines to Richmond and other points South. At a stockholders' meeting of the company, held in Baltimore city on the 18th inst., the following named gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year: Isaac Hinkley, Henry D. Cooke, Jacob Toms, William S. Huntington, John L. May, Jr., John Bull, Haller Kilburn, William W. Dungen, George P. Fisher, Geo. A. Parker, Samuel M. Felton, P. V. Daniel, Jr., Enoch Pratt. A meeting of the Board of Directors was held on the 28th instant and the following officers were chosen, viz: For President, H. D. Cooke; Vice President, Isaac Hinkley; Secretary, John Bull; Treasurer, Wm. S. Huntington.

A POPULAR DILEMMA.—Fashionable young ladies in this city are very much tickled and delighted with a new song entitled "Father will settle the bill." Father don't like the song quite so well—especially in drawing room bills.—Rich. Eng.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

RICHMOND, May 28.—In the Senate, to-day, the House bill in regard to district free schools in King George county, was referred.

A bill amending the act of incorporation of the Shenandoah Valley railroad, so as to extend the road to Danville, was reported from the committee and ordered to be engrossed. The bill to amend and reenact section 4 of chapter 65 of the code of 1850 in relation to incorporations by circuit courts, was passed. The insurance department bill was laid on the table.

The bill amending the act to prevent and punish unlawful hunting, (striking out the section requiring county courts to put the act in force, and thereby making it operative) was passed.

The bill increasing the pay of the public printer was laid on the table. Bills were presented to incorporate the Pamunkey River Internal Improvement Company, and to amend the code prescribing how and in what cases the estates of persons of unsound mind shall be committed to the public curator.

The bill to amend the charter of the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad Company, was taken up and discussed at length by Messrs. Waddell, representing the claims of Messrs. Mason & Co., contractors, Smith, of Henrico, Snowden, Taylor, of Norfolk, and others, and finally amended on motion of Mr. Snowden, so as to compel the company to snow the road between Alexandria and Fredericksburg before the same can be extended north of Alexandria, and as thus amended the bill was passed and goes to the House.

In the House of Delegates a bill was presented to repeal an act to regulate contracts between white and colored persons, passed February 20th, 1870.

The tax bill was discussed until the hour of adjournment.

A resolution in reference to "political progress," having for its object the condemnation of the prayer of the Jewish Rabbi made on Thursday, was tabled by a vote of 32 to 25.

A committee of conference on the Home-stead bill was appointed.

Judge J. W. Ashby has made the following appointments for Warren county: Clerk of the Court, Ewell Baker; Sheriff, W. Scroggin; Commonwealth's Attorney, J. R. Jackson; Commissioners in Chancery, S. S. Turner, Giles Cook, Jr. and J. R. Jackson.

Notes from Richmond.

[For the Alexandria Gazette.]

RICHMOND, May 29.—It was asserted or reported, last night, upon what some think, is good authority, that certificates of election, would be given to the Conservative candidates at the late election, because by the "throwing out" of the votes of one of the precincts, at which there was a large Radical majority, (the ballots cast there having been destroyed by unknown parties, during a disturbance, while the boxes were being carried from the precinct to the City Hall) and which, therefore, was not counted in the canvass, and leaves a Conservative majority in the city and elects Messrs. Elyson and his associates on the ticket. It is to be hoped, however, that we have seen the end of Richmond difficulties.

The Senate investigating committee on the "bribery and corruption" charged in the Richmond Whig, have concluded their labors, found no foundation whatever for the charge and condemn the Whig for its unwarranted assertions. The report together with the evidence will be presented to-morrow.

After more than a month of controversy, the bill wanting the forfeiture of their charter by the Alexandria and Fredericksburg railroad Company, and granting them the right to extend the road to some point on the Potomac between the cities of Alexandria and Washington, has passed the Senate, with a proviso requiring that the road shall first be built between Alexandria and Fredericksburg, before work on the extension shall be begun.

Private matters will hardly receive further attention at this session of the Legislature, it being the wish of nearly all, that the tax, license, school and one or two other absolutely necessary bills should be acted upon, and an adjournment take place.

Notwithstanding the State no longer lends her aid in the construction of railroads, the number of charters asked for in excess of that of any previous session, are built, the old Commonwealth is to be a net work of roads running into every nook and corner, and granting facilities not enjoyed by any other State in the Union. But it is feared many of the charters will perish with the paper on which they are written, after having the State put to considerable expense in legislating upon them.

The whole set of officers is a very creditable selection. Tickets were awfully scratched at most of the precincts, but especially at Leesburg where there were independents—two of whom were elected over the regulars. The colored people voted the independent ticket at Leesburg about 9 to 1. At Grovesville, Blackley's, Union and Middleburg they voted for the Conservative nominees just to show that they could vote.

The white voters did not come out here as fully as the colored ones did. They are more used to it.

THE "LEADER."—The Richmond correspondence of the Petersburg Courier says: "The General Gleason whose name appears prominently as that of a leader of the latest Irishman demonstration on Canada, is a giant Irishman, well known here. Sometime ago he was convicted in York county of obtaining money under false pretences, in that he had falsely and fraudulently personated a U. S. Internal Revenue officer and in that assumed capacity had extorted a bribe from one whom he threatened with prosecution. He was then released on a writ of habeas corpus by a military judge who held that the offence was one of which only the Federal courts could properly take cognizance."
